WELLS FARGO PLAZA BANKER "PEOPLE ARE GETTING TIRED" OF OCCUPY LA ANOTHER BANKER SAYS "GET A JOB"

Daily Breeze reports today that on Friday at Wells Fargo Plaza Merrill Lynch banker A.J. Mac said, "I think people are getting tired of it [Occupy LA]...There's no real message you don't know what they want."

"Get a job!" Hamad, 34, a banker said, "Yes there's 1 percent. That's capitalism. It's eat or be eaten, that's our country."

Occupy Los Angeles News has interviewed dozens of occupiers over the past 14 days and have been given many reasons for occupying 200 Spring Street including "economic justice, money out of politics, healthcare, abolish corporate personhood, end to wars, re-regulation of banks. They want sustainable jobs created and their outsourced jobs brought back to America. And they want basic fairness in our nation's society."

California's official unemployment rate is 11.9%. 2.1 million Californians are desperately trying to "get a job." Many had good jobs before the financial clamity was ushered in by Wall Street's reckless practices resulting in wrecked and destroyed lives.

President Obama Proclaims End to The Iraq War

Friday October 21, 2011

The President said, “Today I can report that, as promised, the rest of our troops in Iraq will come home by the end of the year...our troops will definitely be home for the holidays.”

Acknowledging the economic issues facing us here at home, President Obama said, “After a decade of war, the nation that we need to build, and the nation that we will build, is our own.”
